

WEST MELBOURNE RECREATION

CREATIVE WRITING SERIES

OFFERED BY MALCOM MASSEY

Mr. Massey is a published author, writing instructor, and independent publishing coach. Mr. Massey has over a decade of writing, publishing and teaching experience in a variety of teaching settings.

Mr Massey will be offering a four-part Creative Writing Series, created specifically for West Melbourne Recreation, to be taught for four months starting May 10, 2022. Each monthly session will last 2 hours. My goal is to provide 5 years-worth of writing and publishing experience in each hour of class session, advancing the prospective writer toward their writing goals.

Session 1: Write Your Story

Write Your Story takes your book idea from concept to a solid ten-point outline of your material. At this point you will be well on your way, all questions answered, doubts resolved, making real on your journey to becoming a published author.

Session 2: Your First Draft

By creating Your First Draft of your book, the writer really gets the feel of writing a book, and can begin to move forward in earnest as you see your concepts take shape and recognizable form.

Session 3: Complete Your Manuscript

Completing Your Manuscript will guide you to a publication ready document. In this how-to, you will polish and complete your manuscript to be suitable for any publishing platform.

Session 4: Publish Your Book

Publishing Your Book examines all publishing options leading to the best choice for an individual based on their goals. Everyone who wants to publish can benefit from this vital how-to class.

Each 2-hour session will be $30.00

$20 for seniors 55+ & veterans

Second Tuesday of each month: May 10, June 14, July 12, August 9

6:00 PM - 8:00 PM

REGISTRATION PER SESSION REQUIRED
